The students gain knowledge regarding group formation processes in social and pedagogical fields of work, and for organizing and carrying out educational group offerings.

Content information
Content	In a lot of areas in social work, group work is an important part. Therefore organizing a group, running a group and evaluating a group is an important competence for a social worker. In order to achieve that, the knowledge of group processes, phases in groups, roles and leadership skills are necessary. Additionally special forms of group work, e.g. supervision will be a part of this seminar. This seminar will include practical methods and tools for group work. Please note: This seminar will be held in English. Special Vocabulary on social work and group work will be imparted and explained in the process of the seminar. If you are unsure about your English knowledge, please get in touch with Markus Krajc, markus.krajc@fh-kiel.de
